100 WORKSHOP SERIES

101 A Family Systems Approach to Working with Adoptive Families

Presenter - Joyce Maguire Pavao (Ballroom A)

All members of the adoption triad experience losses, and adoption does not “fix these problems. The adoptee develops with these losses as the very foundation of his/her life. This workshop will present models for treatment, looking at these concerns as normal developmental crises, needing psycho-education and strategies for strength

102 We Pushed the On Button

Presenter - Nicole Burton (Ballroom B)

After filmmaker Jean Strauss encouraged us at the San Francisco AAC conference to turn our stories into captivating 1-3 minute videos, we did it. We'll screen a selection of self-created short adoption videos and share our experience and enthusiasm for storytelling and adoption reform through video.

103 Common Worries of Adoptive Parents

Presenter Jeannine Zoppi (Ballroom D)

This workshop will address worries typical of adoptive parents. Through discussion, adoptive parents will have opportunity to develop better ways to cope with feelings about adoption and experience more enriching relationships with their children. Adoption professionals will be provided with strategies to help adoptive parents develop increased self-understanding and self-confidence.

104 Transforming Trauma in Art

Presenter Zara Phillips (Crispus Attucks)

We will share our experience about how writing and performing has helped us heal our trauma. Through exercises, conversation and questions we will guide our participants through our shared experience. And give them tools to 'right' their lives.

105 Fatherhood: The Laws that Bind

Presenter Kathleen Nielsen (Lobby-William Dawes A)

Despite having been present in most states for decades putative father laws remain a mystery to the population at large. An overview of historical and contemporary aspects of these laws will give way to a discussion Kathleen's research and its impact on ethical social work practice.

106 How to Internet Search for Family Connections

Presenter Marilyn Waugh (Lobby-William Dawes B)

Searching for family members on the Internet can be difficult if you don't know sites that can be helpful. Learn how to search with free websites and low cost resources. Several handouts, with search examples, will be provided to participants. A question/answer discussion period will follow the presentation.

107 Promising the World First Mothers Perspective on Modern Day Adoption

Presenter Lynette Lerner, Meg Wright (Lobby-Thomas Paine A)

Families often struggle with the concept of openness in their adoption experience. Many states have incorporated post adoption contracts into adoption plans. Signing an agreement and being able to navigate this relationship are two separate matters. Viewing this dynamic in relationship terms will empower individuals to experience this relationship successfully.

12:15PM – 1:45 ~ Lunch with your Region

200 WORKSHOP SERIES

201 What My White Parents Didn't Know & Why I Turned Out OK Anyway

Presenter April Dinwoodie (Lobby – Ballroom A)

Transracially adopted presenter offers first-hand experiences and practical ideas to address inevitable race and diversity challenges within adoption and foster care. Attendees can look forward to an overview of research combined with personal narrative presentation as well as open and dynamic discussion about race, class and culture.

202 When the Bloom goes Off the Rose: Rejuvenating Your Faltering Reconnection

Presenter Michael Grand, Monica Byrne

When the excitement begins to fade following a reunion, many express disappointment that their reconnections to kin have not met their expectations. This workshop will focus on strategies to continue to develop positive connections between reunited kin.

203 One Shoe Does Not Fit All

Presenter Pekitta Tynes (Lobby-Ballroom D)

A professional comedienne, an adoptee, a foster child, and a founding uses humor to tell stories about being adopted and the continued search for her biological parents through DNA Testing. Share some laughs and find inspiration knowing “One shoe does not fit all!” This workshop will open for Q&A.

204 Male Adoptee

Presenter Rich Uhrlaub (Lobby-Crispus Attucks)

A professional comedienne, an adoptee, a foster child, and a founding uses humor to tell stories about being adopted and the continued search for her biological parents through DNA Testing. Share some laughs and find inspiration knowing “One shoe does not fit all!” This workshop will open for Q&A.

205 Open Adoption – A Parent's Journey

Presenter Thomas Rector (Lobby-William Dawes A)

This workshop explains a father's journey developing a methodology based upon current neuro-scientific research and practical application of the Biosocial Cognition Model to open adoption. The model connects a child's behavior, and environmental influences affecting the child, and hones a parents' ability to assess the child's needs.

1:45PM – 3:00PM

206 Search and Reunion: Ask an Angel

Presenter Vanessa Waite

A panel of award-winning search volunteers discuss their experiences with search and reunion. This is a safe environment to ask questions and discuss the struggles of your own search. Discussion will include: tips for searching (including using social media), preparing yourself emotionally, reflections and personal experiences and much more!

207 Reforming Disclosure Laws in Ontario – A Legislator’s Hands-on Experience

Presenter Marilyn Churley (Lobby-Thomas Paine A)

As a legislator I worked with adoption disclosure advocates, my colleagues on both sides of the legislature and the media to build support to reform disclosure laws. This workshop is about the importance of having a coalition of the adoption triangle working together and supporting each other to achieve success.

10:30 AM – 11:00 AM ~ Break

10:45 AM– 12:00 PM ~ Registration Open

11:15 AM – 12:15 PM

300 WORKSHOP SERIES

301 'Birth' Records as Lies & Legal Fiction in the Era of Assisted Reproduction

Presenter David Smolin, Jill Smolin(Lobby-Ballroom A)

Adoption opened the door to the legal fiction of adoptive parents as "birth" parents with the issuing of a new "birth" certificate; Assisted Reproductive Technologies are opening the door to an era when even original birth certificates are based on "intended parenthood" rather than childbirth or genetics.

302 Why Traditional Talk Therapy is Not Enough ... Adoption Trauma Resolution

Presenter Julie Lopez (Lobby- Ballroom B)

This professional workshop outlines the clinical tasks required for successful trauma resolution as specifically applied to the adult adoptee and their unique experience/symptom presentation. Specific mind/body advanced interventions will be discussed with clear handouts to guide the lay person in selecting a treatment method effective for them.

303 Genetic Sexual Attraction

Presenter Eileen Skahill (Lobby-Crispus Attucks)

This primary goal of this workshop is for safe, open and honest discussion of a subject matter very common in adoption reunion but rarely discussed due to misunderstanding and an unfounded connection with the taboo of incest. All members of the adoption constellation are deeply affected by this issue.

11:15 AM – 12:15 PM

304 How Our Parent Experience Led Us from Empathy to Adoption-Attuned Solutions

Presenter Lynn Cooper, Joann DiStefano (Lobby-William Dawes A)

Our experience as adoptive parents of children with challenging behaviors led us to become professional coaches. Using coaching strategies and solutions, we assist families experiencing adoption challenges including trauma and attachment issues. Our narrative and activities will enlighten participants to the power of coaching and its positive influence on families.

305 Open Adoption: Lessons from Research

Presenter Deborah Siegel (Lobby-William Dawes B)

The research literature on open adoption, including one 22 year study of 22 families living with open adoption, indicates lessons for first/birth parents, adoptive parents and professionals involved in the open adoption experience. This workshop delineates guidelines for practice that enhance the likelihood of successful open adoption relationships.

306 Reunion After Twenty Plus Years

Presenter Fran Gus-Levin, (CO-PRESENTER?) (Lobby-Thomas Paine A)

There has been much discussion about new reunions. But what happens when the reunion is no longer new? Presenters will discuss the history of their reunions, problems encountered and solved, and what they see in their futures. Audience members will be encouraged to share and ask questions as well.

307 The Poetry of International Adoption

Presenter Mi Ok Bruining (Lobby Thomas Paine B)

I will be reading my published poetry on issues of international adoption, Korean American identity development, ethnic pride, searching, cultural displacement, psychic homelessness, race, and dual heritage. I will be exploring creative expression using poetry, spoken word and written narrative as we explore international adoptee issues.

12:15 – 1:45 PM ~ Awards Luncheon (Ballroom D)

6:30 – 9:00 AM ~ Registration Open

9:00 – 9:15 AM ~ Introductions & Announcements

9:15 AM– 10:30 AM

400 WORKSHOP SERIES

401 PUSH the ‘ON’ BUTTON: The Importance of Documenting Our Life Stories

Presenter Jean Strauss (Lobby-Ballroom A)

The new literature of the 21st century is film. This workshop is presented in two parts: an examination of how films impact legislative reform, and a mini-class on how to get started in documenting your own life stories. Topics include venues for outreach and impact, as well as equipment.

402 How to Roar: Internet & Blogging Best Practices for the Adoption Community

Presenter Claudia D'Arcy (Lobby Ballroom B)

While the internet has been an amazing tool to bring the adoption community together, there are basic best practices to utilized to really amplify our voices and reach a wider audience. Whether blogging, sharing or tweeting, knowing what Google wants and how to use SEO can benefit us all.

403 Establishing and Maintaining Healthy Relationships in Open Adoptions

Presenter Karen Cheyney (Lobby-Ballroom D)

During this interactive workshop, attendees will learn about the building blocks of healthy relationships, the range of possible relationships, the challenges/benefits of open adoptions, how to keep contact safe and positive, how to reduce negative feelings/conflicts, and the many ways to maintain contact in today's online world

404 It DOES Take a Village: Supporting Adoptive Families

Presenter Etta Lapen Davis (Lobby-William Dawes A)

Many families underestimate support needed for children with complex histories, or challenging behaviors/medical issues. They may feel isolated and unable to ask for help. Presenter offers templates for pro-active support plans for prospective adopters, and tools/strategies for building support networks that can help to prevent disruption and dissolution.

405 Recognition, Understanding and Help for the Adoptive Parent Experience

Presenter Nancy Verrier (Lobby-William Dawes B)

This workshop will provide information that will help adoptive parents better understand their children, as well as bring empathy to their own experience. As an adoptive parent, an adoption therapist for 30 years, and the author to two books on adoption, I bring a unique perspective to the subject.

406 The Adoption Roundtable

Presenter Rhonda Roorda, Krista Woods, Susan Harris O'Connor, Chris Wilson, (Lobby-Molly Pitcher)

The plates and the silverware are out, the adoption "food" is being set on the table and the guest list has already been made. Too many times, an important adoption voice is never invited to be part of the planning or even invited to the table. Come hear....

9:15 AM– 10:30 AM

407 The Adoption Closet: When The Unmentionables become Unmanageable

Presenter Leanne Parsons (Thomas Paine A)

Opening the door into the sacred closet of adoption will reveal how grief and loss, gratefulness and forgiveness, fear and insecurities, connection and rejection fill the spaces, rest on the hangers and sit on the shelves behind closed doors. This is an interactive workshop created to impact, challenge and inspire.

10:30 AM – 10:45 AM – BREAK

10:45 AM – 12:00 PM

500 WORKSHOP SERIES

501 Practical Applications of Genetic Genealogy

Presenter Bennett Greenspan (Lobby-Ballroom A)

DNA testing can help to fill in blanks left by incomplete, inaccurate or non-existent traditional paper trails. This presentation explains how to interpret the results of genetic tests to enhance your research, using examples of the types of information that can be gleaned from mtDNA, yDNA and autosomal DNA tests.

502 Work In and With the Positive: Ethics & Strength-Based Approaches in Adoption Clinical Practice

Presenter Krista Woods (Lobby-Ballroom B)

Participants will learn various clinical approaches for all ages groups of clients impacted by adoption/foster care. Discussions will focus on using the strength-based approach in helping clients achieve the most out of therapy. We will also discuss common clinical challenges and themes.

503 Lost Daughters: Diverse Narratives Within the Collective Adoptee Voice

Presenter Karen Pickell, Jennifer Anastasi, Rosita Gonazlez, Rebecca Hawkes, Lara Trace Hentz, Cathy Heslin, Amanda H.L. Transue-Woolston, Angela Tucker (Lobby-Ballroom D)

A panel of diverse adopted women from the blog Lost Daughters discuss the challenge of amplifying the collective adoptee voice while respecting individuals' stories. We will explore places where our narratives intersect or diverge and examine how adoptees can build supportive, compassionate communities despite our differing journeys and viewpoints.

504 Reunion in 3D: Taking a look at Reunion Through a Different Set of Glasses

Presenter Bonnie Burnell (Lobby-Crispus Attucks)

We easily see search and reunion as two dimensional; it can be helpful to view in 3D. How do we cope when we find ourselves grieving and celebrating simultaneously? We often consider reunion a destination when we may find comfort and understanding in finding our place(s) along a continuum.

505 Mortality Awareness: Integrating Difficult Medical Information

Presenter Denise Hoffman (Lobby-William Dawes A)

Sudden death is always a shock. In reunion and/or post-reunion, it can feel even more destabilizing. In this seminar, we will explore how receiving such information can impact one's identity, navigating an often turbulent health care system, and ultimately becoming more empowered by the experience.

506 Birthfathers: The Questions You Always Wanted Answered

Presenter James McGuigan, Paul Schibbellhute (Lobby-William Dawes B)

Jim and Paul will provide a discussion regarding their experiences as birth fathers. How the experience has impacted their lives and that of their families. Involve the audience in taking questions and asking what would ask your birth father. Provide an open forum for the audiences.

507 The Transcultural Nature of All Adoptions

Presenter Joyce Maguire Pavao (Lobby-Thomas Paine A)

A look at how all families are transcultural, even if not transracial etc., and how to recognize culture and the ways it is integrated or disintegrated when people come together in marriage or adoption. This is for anyone interested in the world of adoption and will leave time for discussion.

12:00 PM – 1:30 ~ Lunch – On Your Own

1:45 – 3:00 PM ~ Keynote: Rev. Dr. Nicholas Cooper Lewter (Ballroom D)

3:00 PM – 3:30 PM ~ Break

3:00 PM – 7:00 PM -

3:30 PM – 5:00 PM

600 WORKSHOP SERIES

601 What Does ‘Race’ Mean for Adoption? Old Ideas and New Challenges

Presenter Fern Johnson, Marlene Fine (Lobby-Ballroom A)

The focus is on the ways in which adoption reveals frozen ideas about race and racial hierarchies. The growth of the multiracial population in the U.S. and elsewhere demands that the adoption discourse change. Both adoption demographics and cultural ideas will be discussed in a dialogue format.

Presenter Dr. Nicholas Cooper-Lewter, Dr. Stephanie Cooper-Lewter (Lobby-Ballroom B)

This workshop, Wretched No More: Identifying and Healing Holes in the Bio-Psycho-Socio-Spiritual Health and Performance Package will examine key definitions and examples of adoptees with 'holes in their souls.' Presenters will identify strategies and offer successful techniques for healing adoptee 'holes in their souls.'

603 Divorce and the Adult Adoptee: A Double Whammy of Loss and Abandonment

Presenter Cheryl Tano (Lobby-Crispus Attucks)

The goal of the workshop is to find healing from the sharing of our tales of the often unbearable agony and reliving of trauma that comes when an Adult Adoptee undergoes divorce.

604 PTSD: The Flashbacks You Never Wanted to Have

Presenter Kathy Aderhold, Cynthia McGuigan (Lobby-William Dawes A)

This workshop will explore the signs, symptoms, and effects of PTSD as it relates to the surrendering mother. The presenters will share results of a questionnaire from 123 mothers about their experience of PTSD following the loss of their child. Discussion will include suggestions for dealing with PTSD over the lifetime.

605 A Tale of Two Moms – Straight Talk for Gay Families in Adoption

Presenter Amy Ford, (Lobby-William Dawes B)

This workshop will examine the dynamics of families created through adoption when 2 men or 2 women decide to build a family. From the legal barriers to the intrusive questions of preschoolers, we will explore it all with humor and respect.

606 Tell the Tale: Playwriting in the Adoption Constellation

Presenter Sarah Tomek (Lobby-Thomas Paine A)

Don't think you can write a play? Think again! Learn the process of non-fiction playwriting based on interviews conducted with your

"characters". Aspects of staging and performance will be explored.

Everyone involved in the adoption constellation has a tale to tell. Make sure yours has an audience!
