Sacramento - Gold Rush Charm in California's Capital City

Peacefully located in a leafy valley of scenic rivers and canopies of trees, today's Sacramento is a cosmopolitan convergence of tall, gleaming buildings, hearty Victorians, splendid restaurants and shops, a vibrant arts scene, and a virtual cornucopia of state of the art meeting facilities. Sacramento has been called a snapshot of Wild West history in a modern, world-class city. With a plethora of first-class hotel rooms and attractions Sacramento offers an affordable and exciting vacation and meeting destination. Its amenities, combined with the rich history of California's Wild West, help visitors once again Discover Gold in California's Capital City.

If you really want to visit the past, step back in time to the California Gold Rush era in Old Sacramento, a 28-acre town of historic buildings, museums and monuments. With strong preservation efforts, the wooden sidewalks, horse-drawn carriages, Pony Express monuments and Mississippi-style riverboats reflect the nostalgic appeal of early American history. The Sheraton Grand Sacramento is located in the heart of downtown and steps away from the Sacramento Convention Center, the California State Capitol, Old Sacramento, shopping and wonderful restaurants.

The centerpiece of the 503-room Sheraton Grand hotel is the unique restoration of Sacramento's Historic Public Market Building, originally built in 1923.

The Sheraton Grand has all the amenities you would expect from a four-diamond hotel, including a business center, restaurant fitness center and outdoor pool. It is seven miles from Sacramento International Airport (SMF) and a Super Shuttle to the hotel is available 24 hours a day.

Keynote Presenters

JEAN STRAUSS
THURSDAY, 8 PM - 10 PM
FOR THE LIFE OF ME

Join us for a special keynote address, which kicks off with a screening of the PBS version of For the Life of Me (53 minutes). Four years in the making, the film explores the lifelong impact of secrets in adoption. Weaving the stories of a handful of adoptees with the conflicting messages of a culture that purports to value heritage and human rights, the film aims an arrow straight into the heart of anyone whose life has been touched by adoption. Following the film, Jean Strauss will talk about the inspirational positive outcomes of access legislation in other states – and why her home state of California presents some unique challenges.

Jean, a native Californian, has been documenting adoption issues nationwide for over two decades. Her book, Birthright: the Guide to Search and Reunion, has been in print from Penguin since 1994, and her memoir, Beneath a Tall Tree was honored at the 2002 Writers Digest Book Awards. Her films include the award-winning shorts, The Triumvirate and Breathing, as well as Holding Hands and Vital Records which have benefited adoption reform and education. Strauss received the 2009 Emma Vilardi Humanitarian Award from the AAC.

DEBORAH JIANG STEIN

Now, she returns to prisons across the country to share her story of hope.

Deborah, a speaker who presents her story of hope to a variety of audiences, from social services to employee groups, parents and child/youth advocates, foster care and adoption professionals, women's groups, and addiction and recovery networks. She also tours prisons across the country and speaks to communities in the margins to offer herself as evidence of the resilience of the human spirit and the importance of support networks, critical relationships, and speaking one's truth. Deborah is now a writer, speaker, entrepreneur and an adoptive mother of two daughters.

What she found was both enlightening ... and frightening. This is the story of an adopted daughter’s journey to find her place in the world.

CARISTA LUMINARE, Ph.D
SATURDAY, 10:30 AM - NOON
GETTING UNSTUCK: YOU CAN HEAL YOURSELF

Perhaps we can all acknowledge that “adoption is forever,” but how many of us are really comfortable with how adoption has impacted our sense of self worth, our ability to trust, and to experience healthy love? Many of us subconsciously let our adoption wounding run the show – our “inner child” determines how we feel about ourselves and how we interact with others. We become stuck, acting out patterns of behavior that we can’t seem to change. We may never experience the love and acceptance we need to thrive. Self Love can release us from the trauma and behavioral patterns that have come to define our lives. Self Love is a developed skill—learning to make healthy choices to nurture one’s sense of self worth and choosing relationships where one feels valued. Carista calls this The True Self Way.

Carista is the founder of The Center for Creative Parenting, has a successful counseling practice and has taught numerous workshops on preparing for parenthood as well as optimizing True Self Development. Carista has developed a holistic rebirth and health program for both the parents and the future child, which is featured in her book, Parenting Begins Before Conception: A Guide to Preparing Body, Mind and Spirit.

DELORES S. TELLER, LCSW
SUNDAY, 10:30 - 11:45 AM
THE ETHICS OF RELIQUISHMENT AND ADOPTION: HOW CAN WE MAKE IT BETTER?

Adoption policy and practice has improved over the past 30 years, and the topic of open adoption and adoption reunion is spoken more freely in the media. But there continues to be a plethora of unethical adoption practice operating unchallenged and even accepted by the general public. What can we do?

Delores is a reunited birthmother, post adoption therapist, and the past president of the American Adoption Congress. She has traveled and lectured throughout the U.S. and Canada on post adoption and her life story and work in support of the Landmark Oregon Adoption Law, Measure 58, was featured in Rolling Stone Magazine.

2:00 PM – 4:00 PM

102 FILM – SUNSHINE, A FILM BY KAREN SKLOSS

DISCUSSION FACILITATOR: TBD

Has your life ever taken an unexpected detour? Director Karen Skloss reunites with her biological mother to tell a personal story about adoption and life as a single mother while grappling with the definition of family. Young, pregnant, single and unprepared, Skloss struggles with the incredible ironies - that history repeated itself and that efforts to protect family can sometimes do the most harm.

3:00 PM – 5:00 PM

103 STAYING CLEAN: PURSUING ACCESS LEGISLATION IN AN IMPERFECT WORLD

In a perfect world, the passage of “clean bills” that give all adopted adults their original birth certificate with no attached conditions would be the norm. In leading the movement to achieve access, AAC pursues unrestricted access but will accept compromise legislation if, in the opinion of AAC and local supporters, such a compromise is necessary to obtain the greatest access for the greatest number of adopted persons. This panel will discuss the challenges of “staying clean” by veterans in championing access. Moderated by Mary Martin Mason and Rich Uhrlaub of Colorado. Other panelists will be announced.

4:00 PM – 5:00 PM

104 ROOTS UNKNOWN – HEALING THE ADOPTION EXPERIENCE

The presenter will talk about her experience and journey as an adopted woman, her search and reunion, becoming a mother, the death of her adoptive mother and how these life events affected the adoption experience. 302 UP FOR ADOPTION – THE SURRENDERING MOTHER'S EXPERIENCE OF CHILDBIRTH

PRESENTER: KATHY ADERHOLD

Childbirth has changed radically since the Childbirth Dark Ages, before the advent of epidurals. The surrendering mother's experience was further distorted as hospital staff sought to prevent the young women from bonding with the infants that were being placed for adoption. This discussion will focus on the practices of healthcare providers in caring for surrendering mothers during the 1960's and 1970's in an effort to understand mothers who are later found by their searching adopted children.

303 ADOPTION IS A FEMINIST ISSUE

PRESENTERS: DEBRA BAKER AND SARAH BURNS

Using Debra's documentary Broken Ties, about her experience being an "unwed mother" in 1967, as a backdrop, we will reframe adoption reform as a feminist issue, and how this directly relates to international adoption. We will discuss ways to forge relationships with organizations outside of the adoption community.

12:00 – 1:30 LUNCH ON YOUR OWN WITH OLD AND NEW FRIENDS

1:30 PM – 3:00 PM – 400 WORKSHOP SERIES

The film, while documenting the stories of battered women incarcerated for killing their husbands, becomes by the end, a tale of adoption, deception, reunion, and action. After the film, Brenda will speak about the complicated terrain of reunion, and about the successful legislative action she mounted within a prison's walls.

402 FIVE DIFFERENT GENERATIONS OF ADOPTIVE PARENTS

PRESENTER: RENE HOKSBERGEN

Rene will talk about five different generations of adoptive parents from 1956 to 2010: the traditional-closed generation (before 1970); the open-idealistic generation (1971-1981); the materialistic-realistic generation (1982-1992); the optimistic-demanding generation (1993-2000); and the aware of contradictions generation (since 2000). With statistical data he will make clear the connection between generations of adoptive parents and the numbers of children arriving for adoption in the Netherlands. The same sort of developments are relevant for other countries, as well as changing attitudes of adoptive parents in Northern European countries.

403 TURNING REUNION INTO RECONNECTION: DIFFICULT CHALLENGES AND SOLUTIONS

PRESENTERS: MICHAEL GRAND AND MONICA BYRNE

It is one thing to have a reunion with kin. It is another to move from reunion to reconnection. 702 – “I’M A BIRTH MOTHER!” YA GOTTA PROBLEM WITH THAT?

PRESENTER: DELORES S. TELLER, LCSW

It takes most birthmothers 20 years to admit they had a child. Even younger birthmothers, in open adoptions, struggle revealing the truth. This workshop will talk about the cycle of shame, doubt, fear, anger, and rebellion that all birthmothers share. Specific ideas on how to manage these reactions and the commentary of others will be discussed in an open format.

703 CALIFORNIA: WHAT IS HAPPENING IN OPEN ADOPTION VS THE REST OF THE COUNTRY?

PRESENTER: ELLEN ROSEMAN

California is leading the country with the most open adoptions. Why? What effect do contact agreements have on openness? What does an open vs. semi-open adoption look like? How are problems / disagreements resolved? What about Birthfather rights? Agency vs. Independent? What are “best ethical procedures”? Ellen will moderate a panel discussion.

704 INSIDE OUT: EXPRESSIVE ARTS FOR THE SOUL

PRESENTER: PATRICK McMAHON

In the adoption experience, it is often difficult to express our innermost feelings. This process can help us to heal from grief and loss, as well as share our joy. A panel of birthmothers will show you how.

903 PRESERVING FAMILY AND CULTURAL TIES

PRESENTER: CHRIS WINSTON

How does one build connections to their child's ethnic community? Why is it important? What boundaries exist for Caucasian adoptive parents in making those connections? Why does race matter? How is the child's experience of race different from their parent's experience? Learn what support is reasonable to expect from our child's ethnic community and what is happening in Korea for birthparents today.
